Skilling Academy

The Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA) Skilling Academy mission is to provide widely recognized cybersecurity training for full-time government employees, promoting collaboration and interactive learning to protect, defend, respond, and reduce risk to our nation's critical infrastructure from cyber threats.

The Skilling Academy provides federal employees an opportunity to focus on professional growth through full-time, 100% virtual, accelerated training programs. The coursework is mapped to the NICE Workforce Framework for Cybersecurity \(NICE Framework\) and provides federal employees with valuable hands-on experience to practice new skills in lab environments.

All full-time federal employees in any job series and any grade, or grade equivalent for non-General Schedule (GS) employees, are eligible to apply to the Skilling Academy. Selected participants within the Skilling Academy must retain their full-time employment status in the federal government for the duration of the course to maintain eligibility. Government contractors are not permitted to participate. Participation in the Skilling Academy is prioritized for individuals from Departments and Agencies within the Federal Civilian Executive Branch \(FCEB\). Applications from other federal government entities are welcome and will be considered based on course availability and program requirements.

Timeline

Skilling Academy sessions vary in length, ranging from 4 weeks to 12 weeks, depending on the course. Some sessions may include breaks, while others run continuously. The specific details of the selected course will be outlined in the course schedule.

During all course offerings, students are required to participate virtually Monday through Friday, during core business hours, excluding federal holidays. Pathway students cannot maintain alternative work schedules during this time. If the session includes breaks, students will return to their regular duty assignment during those breaks, unless the home agency has approved leave.

Please note, students and supervisors may be encouraged to attend a New Student Orientation session, which will be held prior to the course start date.
