Bomb-Making Materials Awareness Program (BMAP) Community Liaison (MGT-450)

The Bomb-Making Materials Awareness Program (BMAP) Community Liaison course prepares participants to conduct outreach in their communities by familiarizing them with explosive precursor chemicals and components found in common household products used to make bombs. It also provides them the ability to recognize suspicious purchasing behaviors, and access BMAP resources.

Course Format and Audience

This is a one-day, in-person instructor-led training covering the following topics:

- Commercially available products used in home-made explosives & improvised explosive devices
- Recognizing & reporting suspicious purchasing behaviors
- Conducting outreach & available resources

This course is designed for groups of up to 25 participants and is intended for public safety and private sector personnel identified as Community Liaisons or perform community outreach as part of their role.

Accreditation

The Office for Bombing Prevention (OBP) is accredited by the International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) to award Continuing Education Units (CEUs) for this course:

- International Association of Continuing Education and Training (IACET) – 0.7 CEUs
